

The International Association for Group Psychotherapy and Group
Processes (IAGP)
The Education Committee

Introduction to Group Psychotherapy and Group Processes:
Theories and Techniques
Sakina Training Center
Tunisia
2018/2019

Nevzat Uctum Muhtar, Turkey

I am a trainer of psychodrama in Dr. A. Ozbek Psychodrama Institute, Istanbul for over 20 years and also the president of Istanbul Psychodrama Association. Recently I've been elected to be the Psychodrama Chair of IAGP.

I am also an associate professor at the Psychology Department of Dogus University, Istanbul, where I teach dynamic psychology.

Mona Rakhawy, Egypt (Coordinator and Trainer)

Mona Rakhawy is a professor of psychiatry at Cairo University. She is the president of the Egyptian Association for Group Psychotherapy and Group Processes (EAGT), a member of the board of directors, and elected chair of the Consultative Assembly of Organizational Affiliates (CAOA) of the International Association for Group Therapies and Group Processes (IAGP). Professor Rakhawy is a certified group psychotherapist. She teaches individual and group psychotherapy, integrating experiential and interactive techniques. She has founded the first Egyptian/Arab association of group psychotherapy and group processes (2010), Rakhawy Training and Research Center (2017), and Diwan Psychotherapy Center (2006). She has a special interest in organizational and social transformations. She has several national and international publications. She has organized three International Conferences in Group psychotherapy and Group Processes in Egypt. She gave keynote speeches, invited talks and workshops in different countries of the world.

Gregorio Armañanzas Ros

Goyo Armañanzas Ros is medical-doctor, psychiatrist, psychodramatist and group analyst. After working the first years in public mental health services, he started private practice in which he continues. He founded ten years ago a training school (GO Grupos y Organizaciones) with two programs of training in Group analysis and in Psychodrama. He is exploring the combination of both techniques in working whit groups. He has been part of board of directors of the IAGP (International Association of Group Psychotherapy and Group Processes), AEP (Asociación Española de Psicodrama) and SEPTG (Sociedad Española de Psicoterapia y Técnicas de Grupo). Idioms: Spanish, English, and something of French. He lives and works in Pamplona (Spain). Dr. Armañanzas is also a writer. He has written a professional book, "Toxic Relationships and two novels: "The Dream Catcher" and "Ghosts of ..." (In Spanish).

Niikos Takis, Greece

Dr. Nikolaos Takis earned his Ph.D. in clinical psychology from the National University of Athens, with a specialty in the psychosocial adjustment of immigrant adolescents and their families. He also received an M.S. in clinical psychology and a B.A. in psychology from the same university. After working for four years in the field of prevention of mental health of the community in the municipalities of Filothei and Imittos, he joined the Detoxification Unit (18 ANO) of the Psychiatric Hospital of Attica, where he worked as a clinical psychologist and psychotherapist from 2000 until 2014. Since 2006 he taught graduate and undergraduate courses in his specialty in the University of Athens. Since 2010 he is an assistant Professor of Psychology in the American College of Greece and since 2014 he is the Director of the Counseling Center of the College that he founded in collaboration with the other clinical faculty members. Dr. Takis is in private practice since 2002 and a certified trainer in Psychodrama. He was awarded the title of the Psychodramatist by the Greek Psychodrama Society in 2004. He received his training as a Psychodrama Trainer from the Institute Psychodrama Forum Berlin, directed by Gabi Stiegler. In 2010 he founded the Psychodrama training institute "Endohora", which he still directs. Since 2014 he is a member in training of the Hellenic Psychoanalytical Society. In 2016 he completed his training in Transference Focused Psychotherapy (TFP), and was certified as an accredited therapist specialized in TFP. In the same year he completed his training as a Psychoanalyst of Groups and since 2017 he is a full member of the French Association of Psychoanalytic Group Psychotherapy (S.F.P.P.G.) and the Greek Society for the Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy of Groups (H.A.P.G.P). Current research interests include issues of adaptation of immigrant adolescents, juvenile delinquency and addictions. He is a member of the Greek Psychological Society and was a member of the executive board the Professional Association of Greek Psychologists from 1997 until 1999. Since 2015 he is a member of the Board of FEPTO (Federation of the European Psychodrama Training Associations). He is currently the president of FEPTO.

Gerda Winther, Denmark

Clinical psychologist, MA, in private practice. Specialist in psychotherapy and supervision. Training group analyst and teacher at the Institute of Group Analysis, Copenhagen. Former chief psychologist and co-director of the psychiatric hospital, Glostrup, Denmark and past associate professor at the University of Copenhagen. President of the Group Analytic Society International 2005-2011, Chair of the Institute of Group Analysis, Copenhagen, 2003-2009. Chair of the Xth European Symposium in Group Analysis, Copenhagen 1996. Co-Chair of the 17th International Symposium in Group Analysis "Crossing Borders, Berlin, August 2017 and present member of the Board of Directors of the International Association for Group Psychotherapy and Group Processes. Honorary member of the Group Analytic Society International. Author of articles and textbook chapters on theoretical and clinical subjects. Have given papers and lectures at International conferences, arranged and co-arranged group analytic workshops in different countries. Have been active in research projects on schizophrenia and for several years taken a special interest in affective disorders and their treatment.

